

PRESS RELEASE

Frank Pohl new CEO of profine GmbH

Frank Pohl (52) has been appointed new CEO of profine GmbH effective 15.08.2011. He succeeds Marco von Maltzan, who is leaving profine after more than 3 years.

Following his Masters in Civil Engineering, Frank Pohl's career has spanned sales, marketing and general management in the technology and chemical industries. During the last 11 years he managed various of Henkel/Ecolab's businesses as member of the European Management team.

„We are delighted that we were able to hire Mr Pohl as the new CEO,“ says Frank Wojtalewicz, chairman of profine's supervisory board. “With Mr Pohl, profine gains an internationally experienced and successful manager to take the helm. His vast experience in developing customer oriented solutions and improving operational processes will help him to successfully further develop profine”.

Frank Pohl: „profine has an attractive product portfolio and a strong position in its markets. I am delighted to take on the challenge and together with the management team and profine's employees to further extend profine's position as the leading international PVC window systems solution provider“.
